

Hinckley-Big Rock CUSD #429 Personalized Learning Definition

Personalized learning maximizes the learning and motivation of students through the utilization of student choice, collaborative design, connections of learning to student pursuits, and student autonomy. This is directly implemented using clearly created goals and outcomes, student self-reflection, and valuable teacher feedback utilizing flexible learning environments and pacing.