

Hinckley-Big Rock CUSD #429 Technology Infused Learning Definition

The use of technology as a tool in the learning process which is driven by the curriculum, enhances student learning, engages students, and improves communication, feedback, and/or collaboration between all stakeholders.